Dear Disney Institute Animation Event Alumni,

Based on your wonderful feedback from last year, the 4th Annual Disney Institute Animation Event is quickly approaching. We hope you are finalizing your plans to join us for this five-day event filled with hands-on activities, animation secrets and guest presentations from some of the world's best animators.

Our host for the event, Jeff Kurtti, author of numerous books such as Atlantis: The Journal of Milo Thatch and The Art of Mulan, will welcome a stellar list of guests including:

Don Hahn, one of Hollywood's most influential and successful animation producers, who produced many highly recognized animation features such as:

- Atlantis: The Lost Empire (Release date June 15, 2001)
- The Lion King
- Beauty and the Beast
- Who Framed Roger Rabbit
- The Hunchback of Notre Dame

Gary Trousdale made his feature-directing debut with the Academy Award®-winning Beauty and the Beast. He co-directed The Hunchback of Notre Dame and the upcoming Atlantis: The Lost Empire. He has also contributed to the story development team in such films as:

- Oliver & Company
- The Little Mermaid
- The Rescuers Down Under

Remember, dates for the event are July 24 – 29, 2001 and space is limited. Please call us at 407-827-4455 to ensure that we save a space for you. The event package fee this year is only $1,399 per person.*

Visit us today at disneyinstitute.com for more details, and call us to register as soon as possible. See you in July!

Sincerely,

Lock Wolverson
Disney Institute Animation
